2. Prin. Dr. Dinesh Naik delivered a welcome speech wherein he introduced about the institute's legacy and the expansion at present in terms of activities and student strength. He emphatically underlined the role of the management and its progressive approach in all activities, including the Paramarsh Scheme. The principal also highlighted the encouragement given by Hon. Shri. Govindrao Holkar, Gen. Secretary of N.V.P. Mandal to successfully implement the scheme.
3. Dr. Sanjay Nikam briefly introduced the resource persons, Dr. Pramod Pabrekar and Dr. Vijay Joshi and requested Dr. Mohan Khatal, Hon. Joint Director, Higher Education, Govt. of Maharashtra to deliver opening remarks for the meeting.

4. Dr. Mohan Khatal stressed that even in the lockdown period the work of Paramarsh for NAAC must continue and therefore the online meeting was being conducted. He discussed about the Government's strategies being implemented for quality initiatives and made a strong appeal to non-granted colleges to undergo NAAC.
5. Dr. Pramod Pabrekar, Senior Consultant of RUSA laid down the structure of the review meeting in his brief concept note.
6. In Session I, Prin. Dr. Dinesh Naik discussed activities undertaken by the host college. He elaborated upon the induction programmes conducted for the mentee colleges and subsequent guidance visits by In Charge of the seven criteria to these colleges. In addition he also narrated the college's progress from C++ Grade in the NAAC First Cycle to the Third Cycle Accreditation with A Grade and 3.30 CGPA. By doing so, Prin. Dr. Naik encouraged the mentee colleges for their NAAC Accreditation. Further he detailed about the mentee institutes' efforts to face the NAAC and their progress in this regard. He stated that the role of all stakeholders is very significant in the whole process.
7. The second session consisted of benefits to the mentee colleges due to Paramarsh Scheme. First of all Dr. Amol Bhagat, Principal of MVP's Wadner College expressed his gratitude towards the scheme and the mentor college. He described the change in approach brought by the Induction Programme and guidance by Dr. Sanjay Nikam and other Criteria heads. He also expressed his confidence to submit the SSR soon. Next was Mr. Akshay Bale, IQAC Coordinator of Vishwalata College, Yeola to express his views. He talked about the overall change in attitude regarding NAAC and the constant support by the mentor college. Prin. Dr. D.N. Kare of MVP's Arts and Commerce College, Khedgaon also hailed the support and guidance received from the mentor institute from time to time. Prin. Dr. Bhausheeb Andhale of S.N.D. College, Yeola expressed his confidence to face NAAC with good preparation. Prin. Dr. R. T. Jadhav of Rajaram Nagar College talked about the progress of the college regarding the preparation for the NAAC.
8. Dr. Prashant Bhandare, Secretary of Vishwalata College, Yeola also gave his opinion about his institute's preparations and how the mentor college helped for the positive change of attitude among his staff. He said that due to Covid 19 situation the financial position of non-granted institutes has weakened. Therefore he requested the RUSA officers to communicate the request to reduce the accreditation fees to NAAC. Dr. D.D. Kajale, Education Officer of MVP Samaj, Nasik expressed his satisfaction about the activities funder Paramarsh as he briefed about the progress made by Wadner College and Khedgaon College in this regard.

9. Dr. Vijay Joshi, Senior Consultant of RUSA guided the mentor and mentee institutes in detail about the expectations from RUSA and NAAC. He appreciated the initiatives of Arts, Commerce and Science College, Lasalgaon as a Mentor institute and in particular he praised Prin. Dr. Dinesh Naik and the college management for their positive and unbiased approach while implementing the scheme. He further appreciated Dr. Sanjay Nikam and Dr. Somnath Arote for their constant help to the mentee institutes. Dr. Joshi expressed a strong need to design a systematic and strategic approach to speed up the accreditation process. He advised the institutes to set realistic targets and timelines for that which will produce deliverables. He further explained the significance of updated websites for the mentee colleges. Another important aspect of documentation or photographs is the Geotagging according to him. He also motivated the institutes for the NAAC Accreditation and reiterated the need of cooperation and growing together.
10. After a brief question answer session, Prin. Dr. Dinesh Naik summed up the important points discussed by Dr. Vijay Joshi and also thanked all the dignitaries.
11. At the end of the online meeting Dr. Pranav Khoche from Arts, Commerce and Science College, Lasalgaon proposed a vote of thanks and the meeting concluded with the permission of the dignitaries.
